

Opening for 2023-2024 School Year

Spanish III Teacher

Part-Time Position -- Ideally Spanish III but could be 1-2 others instead (AM, 3x week)

Founded in 2007, located in Mount Pleasant, and serving the metro Charleston area, University School of the Lowcountry (www.uslowcountry.org) (USL) is a co-educational, non-sectarian, non-profit independent school with tax-exempt 501(c)(3) status geared to high-achieving students. USL is an invigorating environment for learning, filled with kind, hardworking, smart, empathetic, and curious students who are guided and led by a dynamic faculty. Offering grades 3-12, University School seeks to develop self-confident, passionate, and empathetic learners who will make a positive difference in the world.

Our current amazing Spanish III teacher is scaling back her teaching responsibilities at University School.

Ideally, we are seeking an enthusiastic and personable Spanish teacher for a part-time Spanish III position, beginning immediately. Spanish III has eight (8) students and meets three times/week [Mo., Th., and Fri. from 10:15-11:05 AM].

This is a permanent position and could grow into more in future years. The ideal candidate will have the support and resources of our lead Middle School / Upper School Spanish teacher, Monica Doubal, and Sonia Goldberg, our Intermediate School Spanish teacher.

Alternatively, if this works best for the ideal candidate, Monica Doubal will shift her load to enable them to teach 1-2 other Spanish classes (IA, IB, II, or IV) instead. All of these meet three times/week.

University School features a supportive and warm environment for teachers. Faculty are treated like professionals and are respected by students and families. A passion for learning and self-improvement is key, especially as these are traits found in our students. Complementing the skills involved in this should be a desire to teach students with above-average academic abilities and an excitement about helping curious students learn and grow through successful exploration and discovery. Teachers have wide latitude to teach and select curriculum materials to engage their students, and guidance comes from the Head of School (who is also a teacher), fellow department members and teachers, and best practices from national associations for the various disciplines. The Faculty hold themselves to high standards for inspiring and challenging their students within an environment of mutual care and concern.

University School largely follows the Charleston County School District calendar.

Please contact directly by email only to the Head of School, Jason Kreutner \(jkreutner@uslowcountry.org\) and/or complete the faculty application that can be found on our website.

University School of the Lowcountry is committed to its growth as an institution that welcomes and values a diversified school community. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, religion, economic background, or any other classification protected by law in the administration of its educational policies, financial assistance policies, or any other school policy or program.

